DECEMBER 31, 1822.

Read twice, and committed to a committee of the whole House to-morrow.

A BILL

For the relief of the mother and unmarried sister of Lieutenant William H. Allen, deceased.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That,
3 from and after the first day of December, in the year of our 4 Lord eighteen hundred and twenty-two, an annuity or pension
5 of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, payable half-6 yearly, for the term of five years, be paid to Lydia Allen, the 7 mother of Lieutenant William H. Allen, deceased, late an 8 officer in the navy of the United States; and that a like an-9 nuity of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, for a like 10 term of five years, payable as aforesaid, be paid to Lydia Allen, 11 his unmarried sister, and that the same be paid out of any mo-
12 neys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated: Provided,
13 however, That, in case of the death of said Lydia Allen, first 14 named, or in case of the death or marriage of the said Lydia

15 Allen last named, before the expiration of five years from the 16 first day of December, aforesaid, the annuity hereby granted 17 shall cease, in respect to such annuitant, from and after the 18 time of such marriage, or death, respectively.
